PROJECTS

August 2016   Bhojan-Daan   (bhojan-daan.herokuapp.com)
- Built a food donation platform to help redirect leftover food from restaurants to the needy.
- Used Google Maps API to display donors' postings and improve user experience.
- Established a strong working understanding of Node.js, Express.js and MongoDB.
- Refined knowledge of both back and front-end logic.

August 2016   Personal website   (sidmalik.com)
- Created an elegant personal website to showcase my work and to link my resume and social profiles.
- Integrated Nodemailer to make contact form functional.
- Improved CSS abilities and fostered a concrete knowledge of responsive web design.

July 2016   MEAN To-do application   (github.com/sidmalik123/MEAN-to-do-)
- Developed using the MEAN stack, provides a user friendly interface for task management.
- Used Angular.js to make requests to Express REST APIs that I set up.
- Gained a strong conceptual foundation in Angular.js.

July 2016   Mock-Users   (mock-users.herokuapp.com)
- Crafted a single page application that provides random user data for testing new platforms.
- Interacted with a public API to get user data. Used a JQuery plugin to include copy to clipboard functionality.
- Learned to work with open-source APIs and JSON.
